

Thursday 17th May 2007

The last container was removed from the wreck of the MSC Napoli today. The container is seen behind the SMIT Salvage team who removed 2199 containers in total from the vessel. Kneeling in front is the diver who connected the final slings to the crane hook.

Photos courtesy of the "Daily Collection of Maritime Press Clippings"